

Galena CLINIC DIRECTOR WANTED

Work with a seasoned and supportive team of healthcare professionals.

TCC will provide training and support.

Exceptional benefits: PTO, Health Insurance, Profit Sharing & Retirement

This is an exciting time of growth and expansion for Tanana Chiefs Conference!

Our vision is for Healthy, Strong, Unified Tribes.

The Tanana Chiefs Conference Edgar Nollner Health Center is accepting applications for a clinic director in Galena. Management of this well established sub-regional specialty clinic includes supervision of primary care, urgent care, behavioral health, community health nursing, billing, and registration.

Salary $80,000 or more Depending On Experience

Essential Functions

- Recruits, orients, trains, supervises & evaluates staff.
- Appropriately handle all staff and patient complaints and concerns with diplomacy and timely response.
- Directs operations to ensure efficient and effective day to day operations. Sets up and conducts meetings and processes action items.

Minimum Qualifications

- Three years of supervisory experience in a clinical, tribal or healthcare setting required.
- Bachelor's Degree in health related field; or equivalent combination of relevant education, training and experience which provides the capabilities to perform the described functions. Master's level preferred, but not mandatory.

Tanana
Chiefs
Conference

Apply online at www.TananaChiefs.org and/or contact
Brad Clark, Medical Staff Recruiter
brad.clark@tananachiefs.org