6.1 Telling Public Radio's Story

Jump to question: 6.1

The purpose of this section is to give you an opportunity to tell us and your community about the activities you have engaged in to address community needs by outlining key services provided, and the local value and impact of those services. Please report on activities that occurred in Fiscal Year 2021. Responses may be shared with Congress or the public. Grantees are required to post a copy of this report (Section 6 only) to their website no later than ten (10) days after the submission of the report to CPB. CPB recommends placing the report in an "About" or similar section on your website. This section had previously been optional. Response to this section of the SAS is now mandatory.

Joint licensee Grantees that have filed a 2021 Local Content and Services Report as part of meeting the requirement for TV CSG funding may state they have done so in the corresponding questions below, so long as all of the questions below were addressed as they relate to radio operations in such report. You must include the date the report was submitted to CPB along with the TV Grantee ID under which it was submitted.

6.1 Telling Public Radio's Story

1. Describe your overall goals and approach to address identified community issues, needs, and interests through your station's vital local services, such as multiplatform long and short-form content, digital and in-person engagement, education services, community information, partnership support, and other activities, and audiences you reached or new audiences you engaged.

KIYU is very widely used in our region. Our goals have been to be more dependable in our translator locations and to standardize our equipment so we know what we have and where. We also work to create good online presence and created a new website that has a good digital online update that people in our community use very regularly. We work a lot with regional partners to put good regional content on the air that includes news and music. In terms of new audiences I really believe that having our translators more consistently on the air has really allowed us to be more widely utilized by listeners in smaller villages. We also have an outstanding local station manager who has really brought an experienced and committed presence to the region.

2. Describe key initiatives and the variety of partners with whom you collaborated, including other public media outlets, community nonprofits, government agencies, educational institutions, the business community, teachers and parents, etc. This will illustrate the many ways you're connected across the community and engaged with other important organizations in the area.

We actively promote all local municipality meetings and help get announcements from the local school, tribal entities and local businesses. The radio station is seen as a center for information and people regularly come to us for news and local news.

3. What impact did your key initiatives and partnerships have in your community? Describe any known measurable impact, such as increased awareness, learning or understanding about particular issues. Describe indicators of success, such as connecting people to needed resources or strengthening conversational ties across diverse neighborhoods. Did a partner see an increase in requests for related resources? Please include direct feedback from a partner(s) or from a person(s) served.

I honestly believe that our continued high amount of use speaks volumes in how effective our collaborations are for our partners. We are a region that has probably 2000 or so people spread out over hundreds of miles. We are the only source of local news and the people look to us to be dependable to forward looking on community involvement. When partners utilize our services they do see an increase in engagement based on our web traffic and the amount of public response.

4. Please describe any efforts (e.g. programming, production, engagement activities) you have made to investigate and/or meet the needs of minority and other diverse audiences (including, but not limited to, new immigrants, people for whom English is a second language and illiterate adults) during Fiscal Year 2021, and any plans you have made to meet the needs of these audiences during Fiscal Year 2022. If you regularly broadcast in a language other than English, please note the language broadcast.

We do have regional partners that work in Athabascan and Yupik. This does come on the air but our specific radio station does not actively work in a second language, but we have done all we can to support these other stations that provide this service to their native communities.

5. Please assess the impact that your CPB funding had on your ability to serve your community. What were you able to do with your grant that you wouldn't be able to do if you didn't receive it?

CPB Funding is absolutely mission critical for our station to be able to function in any meaningful way as a local news source and entity. We have not had state funding for quite a long time now and Federal funding is what allows us to maintain professional employment and keep local news and content on the air every day. We are able to utilize funding through a gaming license but over all rural communities are struggling financially and it is difficult for local residences and businesses to pick up the level of support that the state previously afforded.

7.1 Journalists

Jump to question: 7.1

This section builds on the Census of Journalists conducted by CPB in the summer of 2010. These positions are the primary professional full-time, part-time or contract contributors to local journalism at your organization. The individuals in these positions will have had training in the standards and practices of fact-based news origination, verification, production and presentation. These are generally accepted titles for these positions but may not match position descriptions at your organization exactly. Please do your best to account for each professional journalist in your organization. Please do not count student or volunteer journalists.
